

Jordan Ridge

June 2022

Double major in German and English

I was a double major in German and English. I did an exchange program year in Germany and fell in love with the language and culture. While on campus try new things and see what sticks. The major is small but has great resources and fascinating things to learn. I use my German skills socially with friends and my host families, also while traveling.